SUBJECT : Weekly Report of the Office of Training

1. EUR Division Has Plans for Advanced Tradecraft

Two recent meetings have been held with EUR officials at their request to explore plans for a two week tradecraft course to be run two or three times a year. Preliminary thinking is that the course would be heavy on street exercises in surveillance, casing, and

Southern California. The official notices are in preparation to go from NIRA to all Awards winners through the heads of their departments and agencies.

3. Senior Officer School Nominations

Letters of nomination, with necessary information on the Agency's candidates, have gone out to all the Senior Officer Schools for the 1968-69 programs, with the exception of the Senior Seminar in Foreign Policy. The invitation to nominate for the Senior Seminar has just come in from the Foreign Service Institute, and our response to that letter will be forwarded shortly. Within the next few weeks, the Secretariat of the Training Selection Board will prepare the call for nominations for the 1969-70 programs at Senior Officer Schools.

4. Demonstration on Computer-Assisted Instruction

Four representatives of OTR visited the Office of Computer Services computer center in Headquarters to see a demonstration of their equipment and capabilities for Computer-Assisted Instruction. Some of the material displayed was developed by OTR Instructor-Programmers. The OCS equipment is not specifically designed for CAI, but it can be used for that purpose and appears to work very well. The OTR group was very much impressed with the work OCS has done in this area and was glad to note their enthusiasm for such an undertaking. We are arranging another demonstration for DTR, DDTR, EO-DDS, and School Chiefs.

5. Continued Demand for Booklet, "Presidents of the U. S. on Intelligence"

Following publication last week of the current OTR Bulletin which carried an item on the Intelligence School publication, "Presidents of the United States on Intelligence," we have been deluged with telephone requests for copies. Among the requesters was the Recruitment and Placement Division, OP, which wanted 100 copies to distribute to recruiters on a lend-read basis. The original printing is nearly exhausted and we anticipate many more requests as the existence of the document becomes known, so we have ordered another printing of 1,000 copies.
